

a nuke is dropping do you...

Drive to shelter

your car breaks down and you die join somebody else in their shelter

Run to the nearest basement you were not deep enough and die

You survive for now

you are nearly out of food try to get

You are weak and die in the wasteland plant a few seeds in your make friend get

They die but now you don't have to share you and your friend are still barely alive

You need to leave
you and your friend can each take one thing

you take an axe and They take a bow and arrow

Your weapons break
and you both die

you take a bag of food
they take some water

You have enough supplies to live and to trade you
survived

You need to leave your shelter and you can only carry one item

You die because Books are useless
in the wasteland

you fight
through the wasteland
and you
survive

a hatchet
